

CARIBOO REGIONAL DISTRICT LIBRARY SPECIAL EVENT

An author evening with

Dr. Asa Don Brown

Join us as Dr. Brown reads and answers questions from his latest work, Waiting to Live.

Thursday, December 2nd, 2010

7pm

Williams Lake Library, Program Room

Dr. Asa Don Brown is a professional therapist, advocate, inspirational and motivational speaker, author, and personal-life coach. Dr. Brown has a doctorate in clinical psychology. He maintains a private practice in British Columbia and Washington State. He has taught and lectured at the community college, undergraduate, and graduate levels. Dr. Brown has consulted various forms of government; social service agencies; legal practices; educational institutions; medical practices; religious organizations; and others in the field of psychology and psychiatry. Dr. Brown regularly consults and engages businesses and business leaders on topics that directly affect their fields.

For further information contact Caroline Derksen, Area Librarian at cderksen@cariboord.bc.ca or 250-392-2331 Ext 220

www.cln.bc.ca